Ayesha's poem

The type of poem I am writing is a sonnet poem

Head My Voice

A child wandering and strolling around,
Adults verbose while agreed to their thoughts.
Trash on the floor that young child might have found,
But parents say dreams just like astronauts.

Want to speak up but nobody listens,
The elders announce that you are thinking.
Each adult's mind has a brain that glistens,
Artificial nonsense and this sinking.

The voice is ours so we can have speeches,
Nothing can stop us from having the views.
We have likes and dislikes like some peaches,
There are opinions because we can choose.

We perhaps could have wonderful notions,
Helping the world to fix the emotions...

Reception - Blue

In Nursery this week in our learning about sea animals and the seaside we have made sea scenes.
